CXO Forum 10-11 SERIES

Global Opportunities

Three Unique Perspectives on International Expansion

This month's CXO Forum brings three unique voices to the dialog of Global Opportunities. We will learn from a global company that specializes in the manufacturing of consumer goods, from a global company that delivers professional services, and from an accountant who understands the practicalities of deriving revenue from foreign countries and the associated tax issues.

ORGANIZER / PRESENTER

Mark C. Gionet ASLA AICP
Principal
LSG Landscape Architecture

Mark Gionet is principal and president of LSG Landscape Architecture, a northern Virginia based design firm with a growing practice in China and India. Over the past two years, his firm has leveraged employee and owner relationships to make foreign work the leading growth sector of their business.

CO-PRESENTERS

NuGen Mobility, Inc.

Eric Takamura, CEO or John Salatino, CTO
(Presenter dependent on who is in the U.S. at the time of CXO Forum)
NuGen Mobility, Inc.

NuGen Mobility, Inc. is based in Ashburn, Virginia. NuGen designs the drive train components and controls for a line of light weight, electric-powered vehicles ranging in size and function from motorcycles to light trucks. The company manufactures in India and China, which also are its principal markets.

Peter Stratos
Stratos & Associates PLLC

Peter Stratos of Stratos & Associates PLLC provides strategic international tax and business advisory services, including planning and compliance for those operating in foreign jurisdictions. China and India are growth areas for American professional service corporations, and Peter will address key issues posed by providing services off shore. Peter is a speaker on various international tax topics and has authored several articles and issue papers. He was recognized by the Virginia Society of Certified Public Accountant's and Virginia Business Magazine as a "Super CPA" in corporate taxation.
